

SHAIKH CENTRAL SCHOOL ORGANIZED INTERSCHOOL ELOCUTION COMPETITION

Shaikh Central School organized interschool Elocution competition at the school premises recently. The chief guest for the event was Mrs. Nirmala Sonath, Principal, Vanitha Vidhyalaya School. The topics for the junior students were Corruption free India and disaster Management. The topics for the senior students were India at 72- Achievements and Failures and Role of Women in Indian Society.

The participants exhibited perfect nuances and fine points that go into making a public speech interesting and captivating. The poise, self confidence and praise worthy articulation delivered by the speakers with uncommon sense of conviction made the event a benchmark for the fellow students, also providing utmost satisfaction and pride to the teachers.

The event had 30talent speakers. The judges for the event were Ms. Geetika and Ms. Sujata Balakrishna, D Farm and Mrs. Helen Rose from Little Angels School. In the junior category Nandi Neje from KLE School, Nippani and Fatima Jamadar from Shaikh Central School won the first prize. Sahana Ittannavar from Shri Renuka Fondation Munnolli and Ruhi Shanbhag from KLE International School won second and third prize respectively. In senior category Astha Raju Mali Patil from Love Dale Cental School won the first prize. Vaishnavi Hosamani from Shantiniketan School Khanapur and Prathiba Patil from MK Gandhi School secured second and third prize respectively.

The competition gave a lot of encouragement and confidence to the speakers and all present there. The event culminated with few words of encouragement by the chief guest Ms. Nirmala Sonath, Principal, Vanita vIdhayala. The other dignitaries present during the event were Mr. Simon Lobo, Principal, Shaikh central School, Mrs. Parveen Attar and Mrs. Josephine Gunti, Vice Principals, Shaikh Central School.